

THE SOCIAL SPOTTER.

The Strawn-Trimble Wedding—A Brilliant Affair—General Social Event of the Week and to come.

The marriage of Clara Elsie, daughter of C. D. Trimble, Esq., of this city, to Gibson W. Strawn, son of Jacob Strawn of Union township, took place at the congregational church on Tuesday evening last in the presence of a company of friends so numerous as to fill the immense church to its utmost capacity. The church had been beautifully decorated with wreaths by the bride's friends for the occasion and in the choir sat the 14 little girls who comprise her Sunday school class occupied seats at the choir loft. Mrs. C. A. Caton presided at the organ, performed the wedding march. The bride procession was comprised of Messrs. Lynch, Geo. Yentzer, Silas Strawn and R. C. Hill as ushers; Miss Fannie Trimble (as maid of honor) with Chas. E. Hook and Miss Mollie G. Redmond of Quincy, (first maid of honor) attended by the bride's brother Mr. G. M. Trimble. Little Miss Rene Seely preceded the bride and groom bearing a great bunch of tea roses, which, after the ceremony, were given to the bride.

The bride wore cream Henriette cloth, demi-train, pearl parasol, and ornaments; Little Miss Seely wore surah silk; Miss Redmond, a combination of Nile Green silk and Henriette cloth, natural flowers; Miss Fannie Trimble, cream cloth, neck decoration, natural flowers.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Day in an impressive manner, after which the bride party and friends took carriages for the home of the bride's parents 317 Clay street, where a reception was given, the bride party being assisted by the bride's parents, the groom's mother and sisters (the father, J. N. Strawn, being unfortunately confined to his bed by a severe illness) and Mr. and Mrs. Seely. The company at the reception was a very large one, among those present being:—J. W. Bailey and wife; Mrs. Washburn and daughter, Mr. M. N. Trimble, Mrs. H. M. Trimble, of Princeton; Mrs. Strawn of Yorkville; Mrs. Robt. Caton of Joliet; Geo. Pyott of Chicago; Mrs. Strawn of Forrest; George Lewis and wife of New Orleans. From this city the following gentlemen with their wives were present: Rev. Day, Rev. Whiteley, E. F. Bull, W. Thomas, Judge Eldredge, Judge Blanchard, Judge Evans, W. Osman, J. F. Nash, W. H. Hull, T. D. Catlin, T. E. Mackinlay, H. M. Hamilton, R. H. Trask, W. Cullen, J. H. Swift, Dr. Bascom, Jas. Milligan, C. Griggs, J. H. Widmer, B. F. Lincoln, L. N. Beem, Dr. Weiss, E. G. Osman, C. J. Curyes, C. E. Towne, Geo. Rickley, Thos. Reedy, F. Trumbo, Jos. Gay, J. H. Gilman, Rev. Holmes, F. A. Kendall, W. C. Riale, S. Richardson, T. Y. McKie, F. L. Fiske, W. E. Bowman, Jos. Megaffin, J. J. McKee, A. Strawn, Dr. Smurr, H. A. Cole, T. C. Fullerton, L. Leland, H. G. Cotton, F. Hartshorn, C. Forbes, W. B. Titus, T. C. Gibson, H. L. Hossack, F. M. Sapp, C. B. Hess, H. Williams, Messrs. Hook, Glover, Gregg, Knowles, Eli Strawn, Anthony; the Misses Porter, the Misses Shuler, the Misses Bushnell, the Misses Fiske, the Misses Hapeman, Matkocks, Seely, Clark, Dr. Sanders, Widmer, Pope, Hull, Hossack, Daisy Strawn, Ray Parr, Sallie Parr, Ella Strawn, Lydia Strawn, Beckie Strawn, Belle Strawn, Mamie Strawn, Glover, Morgan, Stout, Mitchell, Hollecker, Mayo, Trumbo; Rev. Mr. Edwards, Dr. Stout, Messrs. Mason Bull, King, Nash, Clyde Smith, Degan, Irion, Case, Rising, Snow, E. Porter, Gopen, W. Rising, Ed. Bradford, Bert Rowe, Geo. Eels, Ed. Dyer, A. Hook, Osman, Day, W. Reedy, E. Reidy, W. Hull, F. Hamilton, F. Mayo, &c., &c.

Willis's orchestra furnished music through the evening; and elaborate refreshments were served in a most excellent manner by Louis Hess, the caterer; and the evening proved an exceedingly pleasant one to all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Strawn take but a short wedding journey, when they will settle down at once to the routine of married life on Mr. Strawn's farm, "Oak Bluff," a few miles west of this city. The young people are to be congratulated, as are also their parents, who thus see their children happily started in life. They are young folks of excellent good sense,—the young lady is popular in society, has many accomplishments, and takes an interest in good works outside her home; "Gib" is a model young man; energetic, thrifty, a man of good judgment and exemplary habits. Every thing promises for them a happy and prosperous future. May they live to enjoy it to a ripe old age.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Amelia Arnold, daughter of Recorder Steph. Arnold, and John Gutting, a quiet prominent young man of Madison street. The date is May 17, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the residence of the bride's parents, 716 East Main street.

The butchers of this city gave a ball at Turn Hall on Tuesday evening, the proceeds to be applied to the benefit of Christ Walking, who lies at the Chicago Hospital, very ill from the effects of an amputation of the leg, occasioned by a gun-shot wound received several years ago. Nearly three hundred tickets were sold during the past week, and a sang little sum was sent to their suffering brother on Wednesday.

A very acceptable performance of the farce, "Caroline, or the Wonderful Hair Restorer," was given by Degree of Honor Lodge, A. O. U. W., on Monday evening. The cast was: Mr. Merriman, Wm. Furlough; Miss Merriman, Mrs. J. L. Piergue; Miss Hope Merriman, Mrs. Annie Furlough; Dr. Know All, Mrs. J. F. Richardson; and Rose, (a colored girl) Mrs. Nellie Christman.

The committee yesterday received word from Hon. R. G. Horr, of East Saginaw, Mich., accepting an invitation to make the Fourth of July oration in Ottawa.

Personal.

HARRY.—Mr. Harry Hershfield was visiting his home in Chicago, the forepart of this week.

SEELY.—Miss Ella Seely of Rushville, Ill., is in the city visiting friends and relatives.

AL.—A. Alschuler is in Chicago buying goods.

PARR.—Miss Rae Parr, of Seneca, is the guest of the Misses Shuler.

HARRIS.—Miss Harris, of Yorkville, is the guest of friends in this city.

WASHBURN.—Miss Washburn, of Princeton, is visiting Miss Trimble.

BOY.—A ten pound visitor called at the residence of Geo. Rowe yesterday morning.

SWEET.—Mrs. Geo. Sweet, nee Hodgkinson, of Hayes City Kan., is the guest of relatives for a month.

WHITE.—Wm. White, of this city, is one of the incorporators of the Peoria Paving Block Co., of that city, who start with $25,000 capital.

Salon.—The goal of the artist's ambition is the admittance of his work to the Paris Salon. It is the turning point of his career, the end of student life—of obscurity, and gives the successful one a place among the artists of the world and a name. The admittance of the artist's picture does not necessarily stamp the artist with the seal of greatness, but it does pronounce his work as meritorious to a high degree, and, in the case of the young artist who enters the Salon for the first time, that he shows a promise of greatness in the future. Mr. Ed. S. Cameron, of this city, then, having had his picture, "Five O'clock Tea in the Studio," accepted by the judges of the Salon of 1888, now open, is a subject for congratulation. He has attained a character as an artist. His success is the more decided when it is remembered that he has but hardly entered manhood's estate, and that his years of study have been comparatively few; and that he has attained the goal so soon certainly gives his friends here the right to expect greater things from him in the future.

This month will be an active one in the organization of clubs in the country and state. Ottawa is the first to organize and as yet the only one. Streator will either organize tonight or next week, and La Salle will follow before the end of the month. Peru, Marseilles, Utica, Seneca, Grand Ridge, and all the towns and townships should organize as soon as possible, for in a club organization, the condition of the town's politics is known at the end of each week, and can be taken care of promptly and efficiently. This is impossible where the political control of towns is merely in the hands of the Town Committee. It is not contemplated that the club take upon itself the powers of the committee, but serves as an aid and ally.

Hose Co. Officers.

The Undine Hose Company held their regular annual meeting, at the City Hall, on Monday evening, electing as officers for the ensuing year: President, Noah C. Perkins; Sec., Otto J. Gondolf; Treas., Al. F. Schoch; Steward, Thos. Lysaght. Board of Directors, J. F. Pearce, David O'Gorman and John Ehemann. Captain, J. F. Pearce; 1st. Lieut., D. O'Gorman; 2nd Lieut., Geo. Jobst.

A Rose that Wilting

The Rose of the cellar, who had been particularly bitter against the Cantys, during and since the municipal election, thinking thereby to obtain "influence" among the prohibitionists, had its nasal appendage put to blush by the impetuous energy of Tom Canty's knuckles, near Metzger's saloon, on Wednesday afternoon. The forcible reminder of Mr. Canty somewhat wilted the once proud exotic, and as it is a great big fellow, and its assailant a little fellow, it absolutely refused to practice the manly art of self defense and drew a big revolver, with the presumable intention of supplying Mr. Canty with an old fashioned, but undesirable ventilating apparatus. Marshal Maher, who was near, attempted to quell the disturbance by clubbing Mr. Canty, and after removing the cuticle from the face of a son of Mr. Dineen, led Mr. Canty away, followed by a long drawn sigh of relief—from Rose.

Boating is picking up some, and will soon be active. A few days ago the Harvard's '89 crew challenged the Bradford Boat club to a scratch race on the Charles. The Bradford club accepted, and the other afternoon their crew appeared on the river before the Harvard boat house, but much to the surprise of the Harvard boys, there appeared in the supposed amateur crew, Lee, Hoemer, Gaudaur, Plaisted, Teemer, Hamm, and two others, names unknown. The '89 were the first crew to tackle those antagonists, and started up the Charles at a good speed, but they could not keep up the stroke the professionals set, and to add to their discomfiture, the college boys became demoralized, and the result was that after the crew had covered a mile the professionals had a lead of three or four lengths.

Gen. Stevenson, prominently mentioned as a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor of Illinois, who could not doubt have the nomination for the asking, has written Jas. S. Ewing, of Bloomington, declining the honor. Gen. Stevenson is just the kind of a man to nominate, and would have made the sort of canvass that must be made in Illinois this fall. There are, however, others who will answer, and it is, perhaps, just as well not to call on cabinet officers or their assistants to stand as State nominees. The example of the President, of going to the body of the people, and away from the office-holding class, for nominees, will probably be as happy in its results as have the President's appointments made in this principle.

John P. St. John, Gaudaur's backer, has written to the Pullman Athletic club stating that he is endeavoring to arrange a race on Lake Calumet for double sculls between Gaudaur and Hamm and Lee and mate.

She Tried and Knows.

A leading chemist of New York says: "No plaster of such merit as the Ath-lo-pho-ros Plaster have ever before been produced." They are simply to sell cheap, they are the best that science, skill and money can produce, and will do what is claimed for them. For sprains, aches, weakness, lameness, etc., they are unequalled.

404 Fulton St., Sandusky, O., Nov. 21, '87. The Ath-lo-pho-ros Plaster acted like magic. It is the best I ever tried and I have used many kinds. Our druggist said "plasters are all about the same" but I don't think so now. I sprained my arm and shoulder in July, and it has been painful since, but it does not pain me at all now. Mrs. WILLIS MAGILL.
